

City of Carson City
Agenda Report

Date Submitted: January 25, 2011

Agenda Date Requested: February 3, 2011
Time Requested: 60-75 minutes

To: Mayor and Supervisors

From: Larry Werner, City Manager

Subject Title: Discussion and possible action to appoint two members to the Cultural Commission for three year terms expiring January 1, 2014.

Staff Summary: Per Carson City Municipal Code Chapter 2.41 Section 2.41.040, "The Carson City Cultural Commission shall consist of seven (7) members appointed by the Board of Supervisors." There are two vacancies due to members' terms expiring.

Type of Action Requested: (check one)
 Resolution Ordinance
 Formal Action/Motion Other (Specify)

Does This Action Require A Business Impact Statement: Yes No

Recommended Board Action: I move to appoint _____ and _____ to the Cultural Commission for terms ending January 1, 2014.

Explanation for Recommended Board Action: Per Bill No. 101 adopted January 17, 2008 amending CCMC Chapter 2.41 Section 2.41.040, the establishment of terms for members of the Cultural Commission requires seven members appointed by the Board of Supervisors. There are five total applicants:

Phil Doss
Robin Hodgkin
Dr. Eugene Paslov
Jens Peerman
Jeffrey Scott

The Carson City Arts & Culture Coalition, which focuses on the arts and culture in Carson City, recommends the reappointment of Mr. Jeffrey Scott to the Commission.

The Board of Supervisors may chose to accept the recommendation of this organization, as this organization is knowledgeable when it comes to arts and culture in Carson City, and reappoint the recommended person to the Cultural Commission without an interview.

If the Board appoints the person recommended by the organization, the Board will be interviewing the four remaining applicants listed for the one remaining position on the Cultural Commission.

Applicable Statute, Code, Policy, Rule or Regulation: C.C.M.C., Chapter 2.41, Section 2.41.040.

Fiscal Impact: None

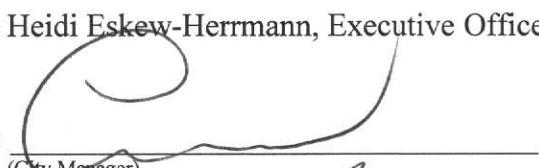

Explanation of Impact: N/A

Funding Source: N/A

Alternatives: Reopen the position announcement for additional applicants.

Supporting Material: Letters from organizations making recommendations, Applications, Roster, Recruitment announcement, CCMC Chapter 2.41, Section 2.41.040.

Heidi,

Hi. Thank you very much for keeping CCACC in the loop with our representative's appointment to the Cultural Commission - much appreciated. Since Jeffrey is such a valuable contributor to the arts community we agree that he should continue as the Coalition's representative to the Commission. We also enthusiastically support Dr. Paslov's appointment to replace one of the outgoing commissioners.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Happy Holidays!
Sharon

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Nevada Arts Council – Carson City

2002 - Present

Community Arts Development (CAD) Program Manager

The CAD program works to maintain and promote the arts in Nevada at the grassroots level through a variety of programs and services; encourages partnerships which increase the visibility of local arts councils and the arts in general; strengthens the state's cultural infrastructure; and insures access and participation in the arts for all Nevadans.

- Collaboratively reenergized the Nevada Presenters' Network (NPN) building a community of like minded individuals in which organizations may participate in quarterly conference calls, electronic dialogues and block booking opportunities.
- Provide technical assistance to local arts agencies and organizations through site visits, by telephone, on-line consulting, and through on-site skills training
- Designed the Nevada Circuit Rider grant program, recruited the inaugural roster of consultants and continue to direct this successful program which assists arts organizations throughout the state by providing below market cost, high value consulting services
- Successfully designed and administered a statewide survey of constituents; facilitated thirteen community "Arts Town Meetings" resulting in a new agency strategic plan for 2003 - 2007
- Successfully re-instituted a statewide Department of Cultural Affairs conference bringing together artists, arts administrators, educators, librarians, historians, and museums – OASIS 2003: A Convening of Nevada's Cultural Community. Exceeded earned income and donation expectations
- Supervise and direct full time program associate, interns and volunteers
- Successfully manage a program budget of $100K

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Dr. Paslov began his educational career as a high school English teacher in Long Beach, California in 1959. His teaching assignments included honors English in grades 11 and 12. He was a master teacher with specific responsibilities for teaching and evaluating beginning teachers.

In 1963, Dr. Paslov joined the Peace Corps as a volunteer. He spent two years in Turkey teaching English as a foreign language and as an administrator in an English language preparatory school in Ankara. After returning to Long Beach in 1965, he became a guidance counselor and later an assistant principal in a Long Beach high school. In 1968 Dr. Paslov left the Long Beach Unified School District to attend graduate school at Columbia University, New York, New York.

In 1971, Dr. Paslov joined the State Department of Education in Lansing, Michigan, and spent the next 14 years in a variety of administrative positions, including Director of Curriculum, Director of Federal Programs, Deputy State Superintendent, and Interim State Superintendent (1979-81). Governor James Blanchard appointed Dr. Paslov as the first director of the Governor's Office of Job Training in Michigan (1983-84).

Dr. Paslov left Michigan in 1985 to assume responsibility for the public school system in Nevada as State Superintendent of Public Instruction. During his nine-year tenure, he was instrumental in creating innovative programs for at-risk children and improving curriculum and student achievement levels. He was a strong advocate for teachers, students, and parents in an effort to improve the quality of the Nevada School system and the academic performance of all Nevada children.

In 1994, Dr. Paslov joined New Standards, a national research and development organization of the National Center for Education and the Economy, Washington, D.C., and the Learning Research Development Center, University of Pittsburgh. As executive director of New Standards he facilitated the development of national performance standards, reference examinations (referenced to the performance standards), and portfolio assessment systems for the National Center.

From 1997 to February, 1999, Dr. Paslov was the President of Education Management Consultants, Inc. (EMC). EMC, Inc., is a private education management-consulting firm committed to helping public policy leaders, businesses, parents, teachers, and students make high academic performance the standard across the country.

Dr. Paslov's comprehensive and progressive experience in education led to his appointment as senior advisor to the president of the Psychological Corporation in February 1999. In the fall of 1999, he was named president of Harcourt Educational Measurement and, in that position, led the nation's preeminent provider of assessment instruments for K-12 schools into the next century. CARSON CITY CULTURAL COMMISSION

The Carson City Board of Supervisors is seeking applications from individuals who may be interested in serving on the Carson City Cultural Commission.

There are two positions open for "Citizen's at Large" for three year terms that expire January 2014.

The purpose of the Carson City Cultural Commission is to serve as the official advisor to the Carson City Board of Supervisors on matters related to the cultural life of the community. Carson City Cultural Commission is to create an environment that encourages excellence by area artists and cultural organizations, strengthen the awareness and involvement of all citizens in the community's cultural life, both in heritage and artistic expression, and establish the priorities necessary to achieve these goals in concert with representatives from the public and private sectors.

The Commission meetings are held at least quarterly, lasting approximately 2-3 hours. Additional time may be spent on special projects and sub-committee work. Applicants should be prepared for a minimum commitment of up to ten hours a month. The positions shall serve without compensation

Volunteer applications may be obtained from and returned to the Carson City Executive Offices. Applications will be accepted until December 15, 2010.

Let it be known all applications submitted to this office will be considered public information.

Thank you for your interest in helping Carson City.

| 2.41.010 - Purpose of the Carson City cultural commission.

The Carson City cultural commission will act as the primary advisory body for the Carson City board of supervisors for matters relating to arts and culture and will serve as the coordinator and catalyst bringing government, the arts and cultural community and public together for the cultural benefit of all Carson City's citizens.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 2, 2008).

| 2.41.020 - Findings supporting the creation of the Carson City cultural commission.

The Carson City board of supervisors finds that:

1. The creation of the Carson City cultural commission:
 - a. Is necessary to further develop our community's heritage as it relates to culture, history, the Arts and the Humanities.
 - b. Will enhance the interests of the peace, health, safety and welfare of the community.
2. The professions relating to the performing, fine arts and the humanities are essential to human needs and enhance the city's physical beauty, economic health and quality of life.
3. An increase in cultural amenities is crucial to further stimulate economic development and redevelopment.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 3, 2008).

| 2.41.030 - Creation of the Carson City cultural commission.

1. There is hereby established the Carson City Cultural Commission.
2. The creation of the Carson City Cultural Commission is consistent with the objectives of the community at large as those objectives relate to arts and culture in Carson City.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 4, 2008).

| 2.41.040 - Membership and terms of office of the Carson City cultural commission.

1. The Carson City cultural commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the board of supervisors.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, members shall be appointed for a term of 3 years which commence and end on January 1st and may serve for unlimited consecutive terms. For the initial terms of the members of the commission, 2 members shall be appointed to serve a term beginning on the date of appointment and ending on January 1, 2009; 3 members shall be appointed to serve a term beginning on the date of appointment and ending on January 1, 2010 and 2 members shall be appointed to serve a term beginning on the date of appointment and ending on January 1, 2011.

3. A member shall continue in office for the term for which that member was appointed or until a successor is appointed.

4. If a member has three unexcused absences from regularly scheduled meetings of the Carson City cultural commission in a single calendar year, the office of the member shall be declared vacant. Carson City staff assigned to assist the commission shall advise the Carson City board of supervisors of any member with 3 absences from regular meetings. Attendance at meetings called outside the regular schedule, are not subject to absence quotas.

5. The board of supervisors may remove any member of the commission for cause.

6. Vacancies, whether scheduled or unscheduled, shall be filled, by appointment by the board of supervisors.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 5, 2008).

2.41.050 - Requirements for membership on the Carson City cultural commission.

Members of the commission must meet the following qualification criteria:

1. Be residents of Carson City;
2. Have a broad and informed perspective of the arts along with a demonstrated knowledge and responsiveness to the existing arts community and community at large;
3. Represent a cross section of the city's age, multi-cultural, socio-economic, professional, artistic and volunteer diversity;
4. Have an appreciation for Carson City's rich cultural tradition.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 6, 2008).

2.41.060 - Duties and powers of the Carson City cultural commission.

1. At the first meeting of the Carson City cultural commission, and thereafter at its first meeting of each subsequent year, the members shall elect a chair and a vice chair. In the absence or disability of the chair and vice chair, the commission may designate a temporary chair.
2. The commission shall meet at least quarterly and all its meetings shall be open to the public pursuant to the Open Meeting Law.
3. The commission's chair or a majority of the commission may call special meetings.
4. A seat will be deemed filled once the city clerk has sworn in a nominee.
5. The commission shall keep minutes, which shall be available for public inspection, of all of its resolutions, proceedings, and other actions.
6. The commission shall adopt and amend, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members, rules and regulations for the conduct of the commission's business. Such rules and regulations shall be submitted to the board of supervisors and shall not become effective until approved and ordered.
7. The commission shall submit an annual report and work-plan to the board of supervisors no later than May 1 of each year. Attendance records of members shall be included as part of the annual report.
8. Members of the commission shall be required to file annual statements of economic interest pursuant to the city's conflict of interest requirement pursuant to Nevada Revised Statutes. Members are expected to declare their conflicts of interest on associated agenda items and most abstain from any votes taken in relation to declared conflicts of interest.
9. The commission may create committees and subcommittees to advise the commission on any of the functions, duties or responsibilities of the commission.

(Ord. 2008-4 § 7, 2008).
