Dear Vern

Lowes would like to thank you for letting us complete our Lowes Heroes project for 2013 at the Fuji Park Fishing Pond. Our volunteers really enjoyed working with you, Carson and Margie. Attached is the invoice for costs for the project (to show cost of project for plaque only) a photo of the volunteers. If it is possible to add "Lowes Carson City" to the plaque it would be greatly appreciated. I have also placed below the press release. Thank you again Vern it was an absolute pleasure working with you and I hope we can work together in the future.

Lowes's Heroes is a company-wide volunteer program that offers Lowes's employees the opportunity to support local community improvement projects. While projects vary by location, Lowes's Heroes share a common goal – to make our communities better places to live.

At Lowes's, we take great pride in improving the communities we serve. We work hard to be a good neighbor and we're committed to supporting efforts that enrich the lives of our neighbors and customers. Heroes projects are a win for everyone.

Year-round, Lowes's Heroes are committed to helping community centers, parks, schools, nonprofits and other organizations complete projects that support the needs of their communities.

This year in Carson City we are pleased to partner with Carson City Parks and Recreation and The Carson City Senior Center. Our partnership with the Carson City Parks and Recreation will benefit those who use the Fuji Park fishing pond where we will be installing additional fencing to prevent ongoing erosion. This project will take place on Saturday October 5 2013. Our second project will take place on October 13 2013 where we will be partnering with the Carson City Senior Center to repaint their thrift store which provides funds to the center for meals within the community.

In 2012, thousands of Lowes's Heroes volunteered at more than 1,300 community projects. And Lowes's contributed more than 1.3 million dollars in materials to support those projects.

We are proud to be part of this community and appreciate the opportunity to work with Carson City Parks and Recreation and the Carson City Senior Center to make a lasting impact.
