

STAFF REPORT FOR THE HISTORIC RESOURCES COMMISSION MEETING OF JANUARY 9, 2020

FILE NO: HRC-2019-0013

AGENDA ITEM: E-2

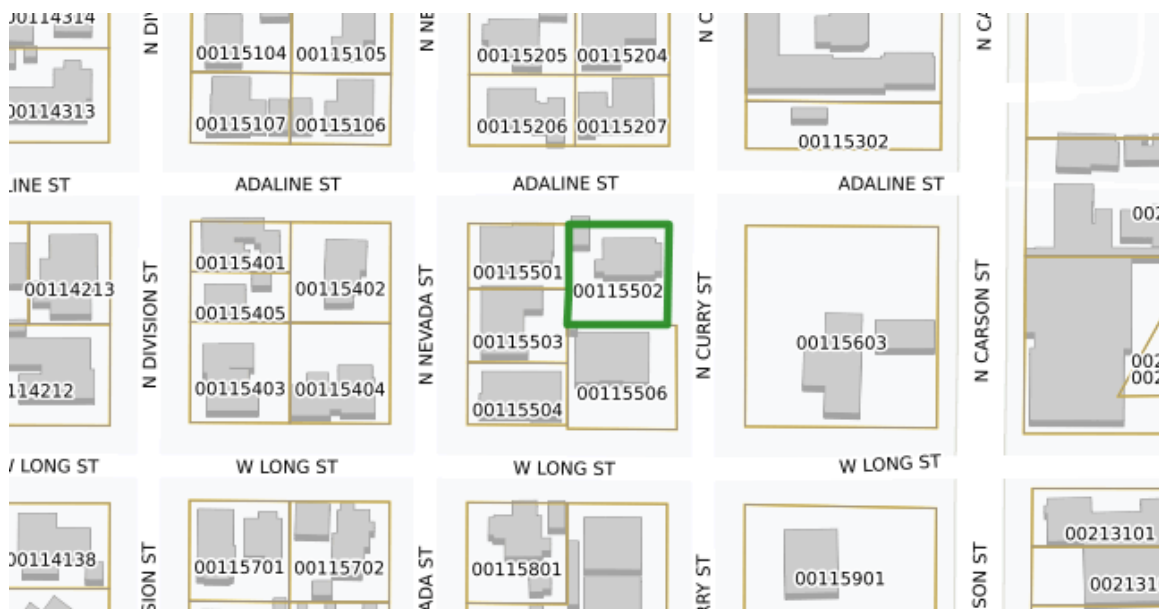

STAFF CONTACT: Hope Sullivan, AICP, Planning Manager

AGENDA TITLE: For Possible Action: Discussion and possible action regarding a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors regarding a request for a Historic Tax Deferment on property zoned Residential Office (RO), located at 1614 North Curry Street, APN 001-155-02. (Hope Sullivan, hsullivan@carson.org)

STAFF SUMMARY: The subject property may be eligible for the Open Space Use Assessment, commonly known as a Historical Tax Deferment, as a result of its historical status in Carson City. The Commission makes a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors based on the finding that the property is in general conformance with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards and Guidelines for Rehabilitation, Carson City Historic District Guidelines and with Historic Resources Commission policies.

RECOMMENDATION: "I move to recommend to the Board of Supervisors approval of HRC-2019-0013 with the exception of the detached garage and subject to the property being incorporated into the historic district, based on the finding that the request is consistent with the design guidelines for the historic district and the Secretary of the Interior Standards as noted in the staff report and subject to the property being incorporated into the historic district."

BACKGROUND

Carson City Municipal Code (CCMC) 21.02 allows for an Open-Space Use Assessment. Per CCMC 21.02.020, "Open-space use means the current employment of land, the preservation of which use would conserve and enhance natural or scenic resources, protect streams and water supplies or preserve sites designated as historic by the Carson City Board of Supervisors and the division of historic preservation and archeology of the state department of conservation and natural resources.”

Per CCMC 21.02.040, property designated as historic by the Carson City Board of Supervisors may be eligible for the open-space use assessment. Of note, current records do not indicate that the property is designated as historic by the Board of Supervisors. The property is not in the historic district. However, in staff reports from December 1, 1994 and July 6, 1995 regarding an open space use assessment, the property is described as being located within the historic district.

Staff does not know if an error occurred in the 1994 and 1995 reports, or if the existing boundaries of the historic district are in error. However, to resolve the matter, staff, with the concurrence of the property owner, is recommending that as a condition of the deferment, the property must be added to the Historic District. The Board of Supervisors is authorized to add a property to the Historic District by resolution.

The subject property is currently receiving the Historic Tax Deferment. The current request is due to a change of ownership.

As a practice, applications for Open Space Use Assessments are referred to the Historic Resource Commission, to provide a recommendation to the Board. The Historic Resources Commission utilizes the following four criteria in making a recommendation.

1. The property must have significance or be listed in the Carson City Historic Survey.

The subject site is listed in the Carson City Resources Inventory completed in March 1980. Per the survey, the home was constructed in the early 1900's. As stated in the survey "The symmetrical building reflects the formality and symmetry of Classical Revival styles while employing decorative elements of Queen Ann Design."

Per the Assessor's records, the home was built in 1910, and a detached garage was constructed in 1942. Staff recommends that the garage not be included in the deferment.

2. The property must be in good repair and the applicant is encouraged to present photographs as evidence.

A site visit was conducted on December 27, 2019, and the site was found to be in good condition.

3. Any alteration on the property must be of compatible historical character.

In 2016, the building had a re-roof. Per the survey, the rear lean-to extension appears to have been added to the main building, and the dormer windows are probably not original. However, staff finds that the building contributes to the historic character of the community.

4. The property must be in compliance with Historic Resources Commission guidelines.

In 2016, the reroof was submitted for review by the Historic Resources Commission, and administratively approved. Staff believes it was referred to the Commission due to the historic deferral as opposed to be virtue of being located in the Historic District. To ensure the property stays in compliance with the Historic Resources Commission guidelines, staff recommends that the property be included in the Historic District.

DESCRIPTION, ALTERATIONS, AND RELATED FEATURES:

The structure is one story with a partial second floor. The vernacular structure possesses stylistic references to the Queen Ann in its form and porch ornamentation. The porch is supported by turned columns and decorated with fine fan-shaped brackets. A hip roofed dormer projects from the hip roof of the structure. A small cap-like cornice occurs at the peak. The rear extension has a shed roof.

The rear lean-to extension appears to have been added to the main building. The dormer windows are also probably not original and contain aluminum sash sliding windows.

A garage stands at the rear.

RELATIONSHIP TO SURROUNDINGS:

Though taller and unusual in style for the neighborhood the structure is generally compatible in terms of age and residential character.

SIGNIFICANCE:

The form of the building is unusual to Carson City architecture of this era. The symmetrical building reflects the formality and symmetry of Classical Revival styles while employing decorative elements of Queen Ann design. The careful composition of the building and its ornament combine with the design of the picket fence to create a strong image of early 20th century Carson City. The corner siting of the structure adds to the character and the whole contributes to the quality of the neighborhood.
