She also believed that the added bicycle lanes and multiuse paths were supported by the residents with the Question 18 decision. Mayor Bagwell also noted that the City considered all aspects of the road enhancements.

The Mayor also praised Staff for the improved maps and for their hard work.

16.C FOR POSSIBLE ACTION: DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING OPTIONS TO MODIFY TRAFFIC IMPACT STUDY REQUIREMENTS IN THE CARSON CITY MUNICIPAL CODE ("CCMC") TO ADDRESS TRANSPORTATION RELATED IMPACTS ASSOCIATED WITH DEVELOPMENT.

(9:21:35) – Mayor Bagwell introduced the item. Supervisor Schuette read into the record a prepared disclosure statement, advised of no disqualifying conflicts of interest, and stated that she would participate in discussion and action. Transportation/Traffic Engineer Chris Martinovich presented the Staff Report and accompanying PowerPoint presentation, both of which are incorporated into the record. He also responded to clarifying questions by the Board.

(9:45:09) – Supervisor Schuette praised Staff for a thorough presentation and noted that she had received confirmation from Staff that the “development community was comfortable with” the proposal and that the impact of multiple developments were considered. Supervisor Giomi inquired about addressing the traffic impact of distantly spaced projects over the course of multiple years. He also suggested looking into “fairly charging” pro rata contributions. Supervisor White referenced Option 2 in the Options Matrix slide, and recommended choosing the “defined and approved list of Consultants who are qualified to complete a TIS by the City” randomly. Supervisor Schuette recommended looking into providing safe routes to work for those who commute on their bicycles or via public transit. Mayor Bagwell recommended providing direction to Staff. She was not in favor of impact fees, but liked a fair, consistent, and flexible pro rata opportunity, possibly based on trip impact. Mayor Bagwell also wished to ensure that the discussion was not to address “fixing of city streets” but to fairly assess project impacts. Supervisor Jones believed that the objectives were well-defined. Supervisor Giomi was in favor of an option that did not specify a “solid service level.” Supervisor Schuette recommended aligning the Carson City Municipal Code appropriately.

(10:15:44) – Nevada Builders Alliance Chief Executive Officer and participant in the Traffic Study Advisory Committee (TSAC) Aaron West acknowledged the challenges facing the Board. He also provided the following prepared statement for the record:

I would like to thank Carson City Public Works for including the Nevada Builders as a participant in the Traffic Study Advisory Committee (TSAC). We certainly agree with the basic premise that:

- All projects need to play by the same rules, the financial impacts need to be equitable;*
- Projects need certainty and the ability to understand potential financial impacts early in the process;*
- Improvement dollars need to be spent in the most impactful way;*
- Dollars for improvements are much better than dollars associated with studies for the sake of studies;*
- The current system of mandating improvements after a project is approved, permitted and under construction is not acceptable;*

If the goal here is to propose changes to the traffic study evaluation and improvement recommendation process to accomplish this, then we are all in, however, we all know the issue here is funding. Since the first meeting of the TSAC the materials provided have contemplated changing the traffic impact study system to transfer more of the financial burden on to developments or generate more infrastructure dollars through an impact fee or both. Not once in the materials provided is the impact to housing affordability mentioned, and it will be impacted.

Nevada Builders [Alliance] understands that the “toolbox” for funding the necessary transportation improvements in Carson City is nearly empty, requiring staff at Public Works to shift costs for improvement of transportation infrastructure onto development of new projects and redevelopment of aged, blighted properties. However, depending on the construction and development industry to provide this funding is particularly inappropriate in Carson City due to the fact that our small community is mostly built out and has little room to grow as time passes. Because of our “mostly built out” status, the “developer impact fee methodology” of generating transportation infrastructure revenue cannot even begin to scratch the surface of the transportation funding problem in Carson City.

The matter of community transportation improvements and road maintenance in Carson City needs a permanent solution and a perpetual source of funding that is compatible with today’s economic environment. As we have discussed for years, the fuel tax is becoming more and more irrelevant as fuel efficiency increases, alternatively powered vehicles [are becoming] mainstream and federal policies seek to wind down the use of fossil fuels in the coming decades. Also, the definition of transportation infrastructure has grown to include sidewalks, walking paths, bicycle lanes, multi-modal pedestrian facilities, landscaping and transit with the [associated costs] growing exponentially; all without any dedicated funding source. Fuel tax cannot possibly exist as a permanent solution to the matter of maintaining and repairing said infrastructure in Carson City, as these new paradigms become ossified in American society and politics.

*We understand that the general public operates from the incorrect notion that “development does not pay for itself”. The same funding challenges don’t exist for Water, Sewer, Storm Drain or Parks. Why? Because that infrastructure has a system in place that is supported by the community as a whole with a fee for new development to pay its proportionate share of the capacity needed. Ask yourself this question, if all development stopped tomorrow would your transportation improvement and maintenance funding problem go away?

CARSON CITY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
Minutes of the June 3, 2021 Meeting
Page 9

(10:24:33) – Mr. West informed Mayor Bagwell that the TSAC process was “absolutely necessary.” He also requested lead time to incorporate new projects “over time.” Supervisor White believed that Staff is given flexibility; however, he had heard from the community that it is inconsistent. He cited the lack of available housing inventory, which he believed was a reason for the fees not to impact availability. Supervisor Giomi did not believe that “this is a way for us to solve [the City’s] road problems...this is to mitigate the impact of a development.” Supervisor Jones inquired about ways to remedy the revenue situation for roads and Mayor Bagwell recommended starting at the Regional Transportation Commission (RTC) level. Mr. Martinovich thanked the Board and stated Staff had enough direction to proceed.

17. CITY MANAGER

17.A FOR POSSIBLE ACTION: DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING COORDINATION OF LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITY ON PENDING STATE LEGISLATION BEFORE THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE AND WHETHER TO ADOPT AN OFFICIAL POLICY POSITION OR DIRECT STAFF AND CARSON CITY’S RETAINED LOBBYIST TO ADVOCATE FOR OR AGAINST ANY SUCH LEGISLATION, INCLUDING THE SUBMITTAL OF PROPOSED AMENDATORY LANGUAGE.

(10:38:37) – Mayor Bagwell introduced the item and Ms. Paulson noted that the 2021 legislative session had ended earlier in the week, and that Carson City’s Government Affairs Consultants Mary and Steve Walker of Walker and Associates would be at the June 17, 2021 meeting to present legislative session highlights. Ms. Paulson also stated that the City Manager’s Office will work with City departments to begin implementing necessary changes based on passed legislation. Mayor Bagwell noted that at its next meeting, the Board will bring forth the first reading of a bill regarding cannabis lounges and smoking in public. Ms. Paulson clarified that the City’s lobbyist had been able to bring forth amendments to legislation to ensure minimal impact to the budget.

(10:41:07) – Supervisor White thanked the Board for its support of AB270 which had passed unanimously and that a ceremonial signing was planned at the Stewart Indian School in Carson City by the Governor on Friday, June 4, 2021. He also announced that the Nevada State Preservation Society was planning on-going prison tours until Nevada Day 2021.

Greetings:

I am writing to express my thoughts on a proposed grant application for a Complete Streets project on William Street.

Short version: HARD NO!

More detailed version: Complete Streets is a program that diverts resources away from the most popular mode of transportation in favor of unpopular modes of transportation. The result is increased traffic congestion, longer travel times, and increased frustration for motorists. These negatives are not proportional to the positives gained by pedestrians and cyclists, as the inclusion of wider sidewalks and the addition of bicycle lanes results in little or no increase in pedestrian and cycle traffic. For examples, I'll point to the recent Complete Streets project on South Carson Street. A multi-use path was added which sits mostly unused. Motor vehicle traffic was squeezed from three lanes down to two, and speed limits were reduced. This has not helped anyone. I would also like to point out that William Street presently has sidewalks along its full length, as well as cycle paths which are mostly unused. Please do not do anything to William Street.

If you want to spend some money to help pedestrians in Carson City, why don't you try finishing the sidewalks in neighborhoods where they're incomplete? If I walk from my house on Moody Street up to a store on North Carson, I invariably end up walking in the street because the sidewalks are half missing on most streets in my neighborhood.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Shaffer, Jr.

I read in the Nevada Appeal "In light of the Nevada Legislature's ongoing 81st Regular Session, the board will decide whether to adopt official policy positions on pending bills that affect Carson"

I would like to hear the Board voice their opinions on AB321- An Act relating to elections; establishing mail in ballots in every election and voter harvesting.

I am curious to know how the Board is going to fund the process to support your County Clerk / Recorder and whether or not they endorse the bill. Would like to have each of you go on record stating whether you are for or against that will help others make decisions on your candidacy in 2022 and beyond.

The school zone by EVMS needs flashing lights, the schedule signs that are in place are ineffective. With some people driving 15 mph and some people oblivious to the schedule, it makes traffic in the area that much worse.
